61 Insurance Claims for Cole Creek Fire Submitted by Deadline

The city and those who filed claims now must wait for Natrona County District Court Judge Catherine Wilking to decide whether the city is liable for the damage, as requested by the city. The fire began after smoldering debris from a grinder at the municipal landfill ignited a woodchip pile, a state report concluded.

State V. Steidle

An interesting criminal case reviewing sufficiency of evidence of motive and incendiary origin in an arson case. Also an interesting review of a challenge to the use of leading questions during the trial and whether referring to potential harm to firefighters is an appropriate subject for closing arguments in a criminal case.
